Dear Dr. Lederberg,

I have enclosed a copy of my plague pandemic article and a xerox copy of my leprosy article, which may interest you.

The story of the European phase of the Black Death in your WP article is still credible. The most recent study of the Black Death in Europe is J.-N. Bivak, "Les hommes et le peste en France et dans les pays européens et méditerranéens" 2 vols. (Paris, 1975-76). As for the Middle East, there is "The Black Death in the Middle East." There is a the Chinese sources.

I hope all this is helpful and enjoyable to you.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
